8. PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION POLICY

Thank you for visiting the Company's website or contacting us via email.

We in the Company consider it extremely important to protect the personal data of those who visit our website. For this reason, we have taken the necessary steps to comply with all rules for the protection of personal data. We handle "personal data" in accordance with the Company's Privacy Policy as well as the relevant European Regulation and any other applicable local legislation on the storage, processing, access and transfer of personal data. The website www.ark4art.com, where the privacy policy ("policy") always appears and which asks you for any information, collects, maintains and secures such personal information in accordance with the above policy as well as with the applicable legislation and the applicable regulations and instructions. This policy applies to personal information (as defined below) collected by means of communication, (such as websites, e-mail and other online tools), that have a link to this policy. This policy does not apply to personal information gathered from sources and means of communication outside the Internet, except in cases where such personal information was consolidated with personal information collected from www.ark4art.com, via the Internet. We collect only personal data in relation to you, if you choose to grant them to us. We do not share any personal data with third parties for our own commercial use unless you have expressly authorized us. Please read our Privacy Policy to learn more about how we collect, use, share and protect information online.

Our Company uses technology and security measures, rules and other procedures to protect your personal data against unauthorized access, misuse, disclosure, loss or destruction. In order to ensure the confidentiality of your data, our Company also uses firewalls and password protection programs in line with international market standards.

However, it is your responsibility to ensure that the computer you are using is sufficiently secure and protected against malicious software such as Trojan, virus, etc. You should be aware that, without sufficient security measures (eg, secure browser setup, up-to-date virus software, effective firewall, no software from doubtful sources, etc.), there is a risk that the data and codes you use to protect access to your data, disclose to unauthorized users.

Our site may contain links to a number of web pages that may include useful information for our visitors. Our Privacy Policy does not apply to these sites, and we encourage you to visit them directly to learn their privacy policy.
